discusses ritual events we regard as family traditions and how they must be open to perpetual revision so we can satisfy our human needs and changing circumstances the idea of this women s magazine originated with samuel williams a cincinnati methodist who thought that christian women needed a magazine less worldly than goodey s lady s book and snowden s lady s companion written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews among western writers were alice cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister phoebe cary otway curry moncure d conway and joshua r giddings and new england contributors included mrs lydia sigourney hannah f gould and julia c r dorr by 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits when davis e clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 unlike his predecessors clark included fictional pieces and made the repository a magazine for the whole family after the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the national repository the ladies repository was an excellent representative of the methodist mind and heart its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own cf american periodicals 1741 1900

how does god manage his entire creation has he had a plan a theme a metanarrative or something else which he follows that gives a unity to all of his efforts shepherds describes the relationship between the creator and his creation a relationship that is structurally integrated by the very core of who god is there is a design within creation that radiates from his personal unique being what god created and how he manages it is a marvelous extension of who he is and how he acts this relationship between god and his creation is not patterned only on his essence or being but on his powerful and loving will and acts rather than a literary grid to which theme and metanarrative attempt to subject god s relationship with humanity shepherds recognizes that all of creation bears the eternal design emanating from god s very nature scripture is not a story about israel or the church it is not simply a story of redemption it is a window into the eternal design by which god created reality and will eternally sustain that creation
