another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground on the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates in exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality liminal fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fernández Cubas Javier Marías Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas in their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain
