Samuel Beckett (1906–1989) is one of the most important twentieth-century writers, seen as both a modernist and postmodernist. His work has influenced generations of playwrights, novelists, and poets. Despite his notorious difficulty, Beckett famously refused to offer his readers any help in interpreting his work. Beckett's texts examine key philosophical and humanist questions, but his writing is challenging, perplexing, and often intimidating for readers. This guide offers students reading Beckett a clear starting point from which to confront some of the most difficult plays and novels produced in the twentieth century—texts which often appear to work on the very edge of meaninglessness. Beginning with a general introduction to Beckett, his work, and its contexts, the guide looks at each of the major genres in turn, analyzing key works chronologically. It explains why Beckett's texts can seem so impenetrable and confusing and focuses on key questions and issues, giving an accessible account of both the form and content of Beckett's work. This guide will enable students to begin to come to grips with this fascinating but daunting writer.

Published in French in 1961 and in English in 1964, How It Is is a novel in three parts, written in short paragraphs which tell abruptly, cajolingly, bleakly of a narrator lying in the dark in the mud, repeating his life as he hears it uttered or remembered by another voice told from within from the dark. The story is tirelessly and intimately explicit about the feelings that pervade his world, but fragmentary and vague about all else therein or beyond. Together with Molloy, How It Is counts for many readers as Beckett's greatest accomplishment in the novel form. It is also his most challenging narrative, both stylistically and for the pessimism of its vision, which continues the themes of reduced circumstance of another life before the present and the self-appraising search for an essential self which were inaugurated in the great prose narratives of his earlier trilogy. She sits aloof, ten yards, fifteen yards. She looks up, looks at me, says at last to herself, all is well. He is working my head, where is my head? It rests on the table, my hand trembles on the table. She sees, I am not sleeping. The wind blows tempestuous. The little clouds drive before it. The table glides from light to darkness, darkness to light. Edited by Edouard Magessa O'Reilly.
